"Never slack up, let up, shut up until we are taken up!"

What are you thinking of upon first reading of the statement above? We, as Christians, should be so zealous in sharing our love for Jesus and what He can do for those who do not know Him that we could not contain ourselves! He has forgiven you! He has set you free! He has given you a life of purpose and direction! He has promised His presence! He abides inside you to live His life through you! He is preparing an eternal home for you! What a price He paid for you! How can we even think of being slack until we share this Lord and the life He gives with those we come in contact with. Share Him now, today. Tell about Him and what He has done in your life. You do have a testimony, don't you? Are you letting Him live in you? Oh, how He wants to!! Surrender now and let Him take over. Tell others. What peace and joy you will experience in sharing Him! He walks alongside as we face the day to day tests and trials of life. Oh, how others need Him—to know of His presence in our daily journey. What a glorious time that will be when He comes to take us up to forever be with Him! Never slack up, let up, shut up until you are taken up!!
