Discipleship Class Opportunity
Spiritual Leadership by Henry Blackaby is an interactive study that personalizes the experience of learning the ways in which God develops, guides, and empowers spiritual leaders. This 11-week study, taught by Pastor Hunter, will prepare you to be a stronger leader at home, at your place of business, and most-importantly at your church. This discipleship class begins TODAY, February 12, 4–5:30 PM in the Youth Underground. If you are interested in attending, please sign up on the sheet outside the church office. If you have any questions, please contact the church office.

Grief Share Support Group
Meets Sundays Beginning TODAY February 12,
4 - 6 PM in Good News SS Classroom
13 Sessions Lead by Patty Sue Sanders
To register: <https://www.lorisfbc.com/grief-share-support-group/>
or call the church office

Discipleship Mentoring
(start and length of time varies)
Being “mentored” by a mature “Christian” will help you understand what the “Disciplines of a Godly Man” (for men) or the “Disciplines of a Godly Woman” (for women) are. As you learn what these biblical mandated disciplines are, your mentor will help in guiding you to ways to implement these disciplines into your lives so that you know what to be thinking and doing to be more “Christ-like” in a non-Christian culture. Contact the church office to sign-up.

Download the New App - Get Connected to Loris FBC
We have transferred all giving, communication, and information to the Realm App. Please consider downloading this app that gives you access to many Loris FBC benefits through effective communication, giving, church directory access, attendance, self-managed profiles, event registration, check-in and attendance, volunteer assignments, and so much more. If you still have reoccurring contributions in Pushpay, please change those over to our new Realm Connect App. Contact the church office with any questions.

He Is God Of The Hills; He Is God Of The Valleys Also
1 Kings 20:23-30

23 Meanwhile, the officials of the king of Aram advised him, “Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were too strong for us. But if we fight them on the plains, surely we will be stronger than they. 24 Do this: Remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with other officers. 25 You must also raise an army like the one you lost—horse for horse and chariot for chariot—so we can fight Israel on the plains. Then surely we will be stronger than they.” He agreed with them and acted accordingly. 26 The next spring Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel. 27 When the Israelites were also mustered and given provisions, they marched out to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside. 28 The man of God came up and told the king of Israel, “This is what the Lord says: ‘Because the Arameans think the Lord is a god of the hills and not a god of the valleys, I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know that I am the Lord.’” 29 For seven days they camped opposite each other, and on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites inflicted a hundred thousand casualties on the Aramean foot soldiers in one day. 30 The rest of them escaped to the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on twenty-seven thousand of them. And Ben-Hadad fled to the city and hid in an inner room.
